Mass Schedule Changes:

- 2) Due to the absence of priests, there is no 8am Mass in Los Gatos on Sunday, May 27.

Ember Days of Pentecost

Though it no longer binds under pain of sin, the Ember Days were traditionally days of fast and abstinence, having one meal with meat on Ember Wednesday and Ember Saturday, and on Ember Friday, a full meal with no meat. Two smaller collations, which combined equal less than a full meal, are permitted. Normally these sacrifices made by the faithful were to pray for the young men who would be ordained to the priesthood on the Ember Saturday.

Servants of Mary

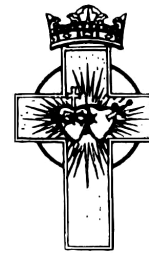

The Servants of Mary will meet today after the 10am Mass. All ladies are welcome to attend.

Pentecost Sunday - Divine Intimacy

The Holy Ghost is given to us to sanctify us, but how will he accomplish His mission? The Encyclical Mystici Corporis tells us that the divine Paraclete “is communicated to the Church ... so that she and each of her members may become daily more and more like our Savior.”

The norm of life for Jesus was his Father’s Will, and we have seen how the Holy Ghost guided Him continually in the accomplishment of that will. In the same way, the Holy Ghost wishes always to guide us further along the way traced out by the will of God. The Holy Ghost comes into our souls to make us conformable and even assimilated to Christ: this is the immediate end of His action in us, this is the way by which He will lead us to sanctity.

Practically speaking, “sanctity consists in conformity to the divine will” (Benedict XV) ... and conformity to the divine will finds its expression in a “continual, exact fulfillment of the duties of one’s state in life” (Benedict XV). Now to be always faithful to duty, in all things and everywhere, is not small matter. It requires continual sacrifice, generosity, and constancy ... which we shall never be able to do without the help of the Holy Ghost. Let us look at Jesus on the Cross, and we shall understand what the perfect accomplishment of our duty and God’s will can exact. This is the way we must follow, constantly renewing our efforts and realizing at the same time that however much good will we may have, we are so weak, so inconstant, so deeply attached to ourselves, and so limited in our strength that we will not always succeed in keeping ourselves to the perfect fulfillment of our duties. Instead of weeping over ourselves, let us turn our eyes toward the Holy Ghost, call upon Him to come to our aid, and begin again humbly and confidently. When the Holy Ghost sees us renewing our efforts, He will come to meet us, take us by the hand, and in an instant will lead us to a degree of perfection which we have not been able to reach even after years of effort.
